Am I guaranteed admission to TEP at Carroll University with an associate degree from the Foundations of Teacher Education program? Is there a minimum GPA required for admission?

An associate's degree does not guarantee admission to TEP at Carroll. Students accepted to Carroll University are allowed to enroll in 100 and 200 level Education courses without formal acceptance to TEP. To be eligible for program admission, students need to meet the following requirements:

- Students must have completed at least 40 undergraduate credits with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 as well as a grade of C or better in all education major and minor courses and English 170 or its equivalent. At least 12 credits must be completed at Carroll before applying to TEP.
- Students will need 150 documented clock hours of work with children.
- Students submit their Phase I Assessment to provide initial evidence of their development as a teacher and learner. Students are admitted to the TEP before prior to enrollment in any Education course over the 200-level.
- Candidates may apply to the Teacher Education Program (TEP) by September 25 for fall TEP admission and by January 25 for spring TEP admission.

How many credits will transfer from my Foundations of Teacher Education program to Carroll University?

- The answer depends on the program and which electives you may have chosen while enrolled in your program. Carroll University will accept no more than 64 transfer credits from a 2 year institution (1/2 of the number needed for a bachelor's degree). Please consult with Carroll University for specific details about your program.
