Faculty, students and professional guest artists will read the story of an aging actor's personal assistant who struggles to keep his charge's life together.

By Molière
November 19-20, 2010
7 p.m. Friday; 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Saturday

This 17th century comedy is the last work written by legendary French playwright Molière, who ironically fell ill and passed away not long after the play opened to rave reviews and popular acclaim. A wild comic ride, this classic farce tells the tale of a hypochondriac who, while being victimized by pompous physicians, tests the loyalty of a loving daughter and discovers the contempt of his scheming and greedy second wife.

Music and lyrics by William Finn
Book by William Finn and James Lapine
March 11-12, 2011
7 p.m. Friday; 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Saturday

This contemporary musical is an inspiring look into the healing power of art. Gordon Schwinn, a talented young songwriter, learns that he has an arteriovenous malformation. His greatest fear is dying with his greatest songs still inside of him; and so from his hospital bed, while in a coma, he begins writing the greatest songs of his career. Based on a true story.
