

CARROLL
UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Lecturer of Applied Business Analytics

Starting Date: September 1, 2018

Responsibilities: The incumbent will teach graduate and undergraduate courses in applied business analytics with the possibility of teaching related business administration courses. This individual will contribute expertise to course and curriculum development efforts within the school and in interdisciplinary endeavors. This position will be involved in outreach with local and regional business. Faculty will participate in professional development activities to enhance teaching effectiveness, to maintain currency in the discipline, and to grow as a leader. In addition, this position will be involved in service to the school and university through representation and meaningful participation in committees, student recruitment activities, quality initiatives, assessment activities, and accreditation reviews.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess at least a master's degree in a business-related discipline with emphasis in business analytics, quantitative management, operations research, statistics, information systems/technology, or industrial engineering. Preference given to candidates who hold a terminal degree in a business-related discipline with same emphases. Candidates must have a track record as a successful and effective teacher. Prior business or industry experience is highly desired. The following technical skills are expected: (a) experience using statistical and data analysis tools, such as SAS, JMP, SPSS, R, Python, XLMiner or related platforms; (b) proficiency using a wide variety of productivity tools, including Microsoft Office, Google Apps, etc.; (c) familiarity with experiential, problem-based, and active learning pedagogical approaches.

Rank and Salary: This position is full-time (9-month) instructional faculty. Opportunities for summer teaching and project work are available, but not guaranteed. Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications.

School of Business: Established in July 2017, the School of Business vision is to provide an engaging and experiential business education that produces highly sought after graduates and successful alumni. We strive to be recognized as an innovative and impactful business school with close ties to business and industry highlighted by dynamic partnerships among organizations in the region who benefit from our expertise and intellectual capacities. Those we educate are prepared to be responsible leaders skilled in business and committed to helping improve the communities in which they live. The School of Business is committed to high quality academic programs and educational offerings. Further, our faculty are known to possess leading-edge knowledge combined with a passion to excel at teaching. We are committed to supporting technology-infused, contemporary facilities. We work to be leaders at both traditional and state-of-the-art approaches to delivering business education. Our alumni are advocates, advisors, and benefactors.

The School of Business attracts and support faculty who are:

- Committed to teaching as a primary focus of their academic careers with a dedication to student learning and success.

- Experienced as teachers, as subject matter experts, and as professionals within their career fields.
- Dedicated to grow professionally, advance as leaders, and contribute to both their professions and communities.
- Engaged in scholarship consistent with the mission of Carroll University and the School of Business.
- Credentialed at advanced levels by colleges and universities with exemplary reputations.
- Ethical with a strong character serving as the foundation of their professional and personal lives.
- Appreciative and supportive of workplace diversity represented in thought and in people.
- Members of the university community that works collaboratively toward a common purpose supportive of individual professional growth.
- Proud of their affiliation with the university and motivated to advance its mission.

Carroll University: Founded in 1846, Carroll University is an independent, co-educational comprehensive university grounded in the liberal arts tradition. The Pioneer Core general education curriculum has a strong emphasis on developing intercultural awareness and includes cross-cultural immersion experiences. Carroll University is located in suburban Waukesha, 16 miles west of Milwaukee and 60 miles east of Madison. The University serves approximately 3521 students. The University though intentionally ecumenical and non-sectarian in approach, is related to the Presbyterian Church, USA. Candidates must be willing and able to support and advance the University mission.

Application: Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. In an e-mail to facapp@carrollu.edu with the subject line "Lecturer position of Applied Business Analytics" please attach in Word or pdf format a letter of application, your curriculum vitae, a statement of your teaching philosophy, and contact data for three professional references. Final candidates will be asked to submit transcripts.

Carroll University is an Equal-Opportunity Employer