Subject: Annual Consumer Information Notice

Pioneers,

In accordance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) of 2008 and federal financial aid regulations, Carroll University is required to provide enrolled students with access to important consumer information regarding the university.

This information includes details about financial aid, institutional policies, student outcomes, campus security, and other key topics. You can access the full list of required disclosures online at:

<https://www.carrollu.edu/consumer-information>.

If you would like a printed copy or have any questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office at finaid@carrollu.edu or 262-524-7296.

Thank you,
Financial Aid Office
Carroll University
