

OVERVIEW OF THE LC

Scan here for LCOOnline

The Learning Commons (LC) is an open study space in the lower level of the Carroll library, and the home of Academic Resources and Student Success. Make the space your own by moving the furniture and writing on the whiteboard walls. Laptops, whiteboard markers, and other study materials are available for checkout at the LC Info Desk. Looking for academic support? A great place to start for academic support information, schedules, forms and links is LCOOnline (carrollu.accudemia.net/private/home).

Academic Resources

Student Success

Collaboration Space

WORK TOGETHER

Find a table in the LC, check out some markers and write on the whiteboard walls!

UTILIZE LC SERVICES

Most services take place right at the tables in the LC or online

MAKE IT YOURS

With mobile furniture and whiteboard walls, you can create the space you need

ASK QUESTIONS

LC Info Desk staff are happy to answer any questions

CHECKOUT MATERIALS

Checkout laptops, chargers, dry erase markers, study tools, and other learning materials

- Services are free, confidential & voluntary for students
- Most services are peer-led, some are facilitated by LC professional staff
- Over 70, faculty recommended peer educators serve in various areas
- Graduate support available

- Academic Strategy Workshops are initiated by request
- 1-on-1 or group options
- Resources on Canvas: carrollu.instructure.com/enroll/EWCJ9G
- Topics: time management, test prep, test taking, study skills, college-level reading, test anxiety, etc.

- Drop-in Tutoring available for over 25 courses
- Students can request tutoring for a course
- All tutoring is group-based and drop-in with the exception of Spanish Conversation
- Students come with questions about course material and study strategies

- The English Conversation Partner program is available to students seeking to improve their English speaking abilities
- Focus is on informal, non-academic conversation and 1-on-1 relationship building
- Initiated by student request

- Support for MAT098, 101, 106, and 130
- Students come with questions about course material and study strategies
- Drop in or book a 1-on-1 appointment

- Robust, professor-led reading and writing support
- Learn note taking skills, get help with assigned readings, improve essay development and work on thesis statements
- Drop in during open lab hours

- Supplemental Instruction (SI) is offered for historically difficult courses
- Sessions focus on collaborative learning strategies and provide supplemental practice
- SI leaders attend class and hold weekly group review sessions and a drop-in group tutoring hour

- Writing Assistance is available for all stages of the writing process from brainstorming to checking grammar and fluency
- Available for all undergraduate and graduate courses
- Drop in or book a 1-on-1 appointment